Why do
I exist?

This is one of the great Worldview questions that determine how we live our lives and where we direct our affections. When children are taught by committed Christians who demonstrate a life directed at Christ they begin to evaluate their learning in light of their worldview of purpose.

Genesis 1:27 tells us "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them."

We are made by God to image him in the world. That's our purpose.

As Christians, we carry the imago dei in the world. A corrupted image tainted by sin but nevertheless the image of our Creator.

John Piper explains imaging in terms of mirroring:

"Here's the picture in my mind. I was created like a mirror. And a mirror that was supposed to be at 45-degrees with the clear reflective side pointing upward so that as God shone on it at the 45-degree angle, it would bounce off and it would make a 90-degree turn and be reflected out into the world.

In the fall, Satan persuaded me that my image is more beautiful than God's image, and so I flip the mirror over. Now the black back side is towards God. It doesn't reflect anything. Instead, the mirror casts a shadow in the shape of itself on the ground. And we have been preferring ourselves over God ever since.

And in salvation two things happen. The mirror gets turned around and we see the glory of God again and the defilement gets wiped off gradually and we begin to reflect God."

May God help us this year so that we may grow in his likeness so that we can grow our students in his likeness - the heart of discipleship.

APOLOGY

Our sincere apologies for the incorrect name with a photo placed last week. The photo is indeed Teacher Jenny Felton. She works in our Pre-School and is very dear to us.

Last week started off with the Grade 8 play, and was a wonderful evening to see the Grade 8's take centre stage.

The play was written by one of our talented Prefects and was based on characters going on a journey of self-discovery as they grappled with various issues. On the main actors journey they met biblical characters who imparted wisdom. It was a wonderful event and had a joyous ending as audience members, learners and staff danced down the aisle.
