FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Welcome back to school moms and dads, students and teachers, may the joy of the Lord be our strength throughout this term! As we enter the third term and the year progresses as every year does, I am reminded of the passage in Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 where Solomon writes that for everything there is a season.

As we look back over the history of The King's School West Rand, it is clear how God has brought different seasons and our prayer continues to be that each season be for His Glory only. There are times when we have planned to do things and God has closed doors and possibilities but we have always been able to look back as a board of directors and trace the gracious of hand of God as He has directed and willed the purposes of our school.

AT THE END OF LAST TERM WE CONCLUDED THE PURCHASE OF THE PROPERTY ADJACENT TO THE SCHOOL ON MALCOLM ROAD.

This has happened after the closing of the school on that property, Graceview. And so it is that we enter a new chapter with regards to expanding our property at The King's School West Rand. A number of the students in the Graceview school could be accommodated at our school commencing from this term and we are delighted to help them not have a break in tuition at this time.

Our school is able to make good use of the classroom facilities already present on this property, but the exact nature of its use will still be determined. In the meantime renovations and alterations may be necessary in order to make the venue fit for purpose.

WHILE WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR THE BLESSING THAT THIS ACQUISITION PROVIDES FOR OUR SCHOOL, WE ARE NONETHELESS AWARE OF THE AGUISH THAT GOES WITH THE CLOSING OF A SCHOOL AND OUR HEARTS GO OUT TO ALL OF THOSE TEACHERS AND STDENTS INVOLVED.

The King's School has been instrumental in finding employment opportunities for a number of teachers and general employees affected and we are grateful to God for His mercies. Please encourage your children to provide a good King's School welcome to those students transferring into our school, as we continue to honour God in our work and worship.

And so as we begin our new term, let us take hands as parents, students, teachers and directors to be good stewards of all that God has entrusted to us. And as we plan for each day, week and month ahead let us trust our faithful, merciful and ever-loving God for His will and purpose in our lives and our school.

"MANY ARE THE PLANS IN A PERSON'S HEART, BUT IT IS THE LORD'S PURPOSE THAT PREVAILS"
PROVERBS 19:21
