

The King's Ken

12 OCTOBER 2017

Welcome to the fourth term

I always love the start of the final term. Oom Stoffel uses the two week break to work wonders in the gardens and we return to beautiful green and manicured lawns, and spotless facilities. Oom Stoffel is our curator, a word that originally designated one who cures souls and that is what a beautiful garden is capable of.

This term we will be doing our How Good is Our School survey, and we are requesting that parents take just 5 or 10 minutes to complete this online instrument (last time only 30% of parents managed to submit their return, which compromises the results). The link to follow is:
www.surveymonkey.com/r/9CRHN78

The final term is an exam term, so parents, please help your kids to work diligently and consistently for best results. Early preparation, organized study timetables, lots of repetition, and study notes (flow diagrams, spider diagrams or numbered summaries) go a long way to alleviating stress and ensuring great marks.

Before we know it, it will be Christmas and the end of the year, a season to remember God's promise to be with his people always, through the valleys and mountaintops. May we respond with gratitude and worship.
