PLEASE DON'T

CHURCH

I sometimes find that I listen to a sermon in church and become quite critical of what is being said, or even how it is being said. But even while I get hung up on eloquence, the Holy Spirit is moving in the church to minister to hearts that have been cracked open.

Fred Rogers, who hosted the longest running children's television show, Mr. Roger's neighborhood, sums it up.

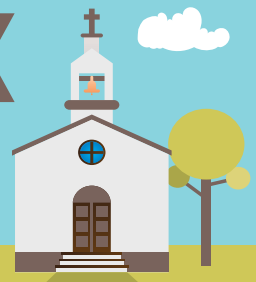

"I remember so keenly one of the times I learned how individually the Spirit can work. It was years ago, and Joanne and I were worshiping in a little church with friends of ours, another husband and wife. We were on vacation, and I was in the middle of my theology homiletics course at the time."

"During the sermon I kept ticking off every mistake I thought the preacher—he must have been 80 years old—was making. When this interminable sermon finally ended, I turned to my friend, intending to say something critical about the sermon. I stopped myself when I saw the tears running down her face."

"She whispered to me, 'He said exactly what I needed to hear.' That was a seminal experience for me. I was judging and she was needing, and the Holy Spirit responded to need, not to judgment."

Thank you, Lord, that you minister healing and wholeness to our brokenness and hurting within the body of Christ gathered at church. Help me to also be an instrument of ministry to my neighbour in the fellowship, and help me to be an expectant recipient of your grace in my own neediness. Help me not to give up on the church.

SPORTS

We had the great honor to host the annual G7 Soccer and Netball that serves as a qualifier for SACSSA (South African Christian School's Sport Association). Our teams did exceptionally well and we are excited to have some of our teams represent us at this high level. Well done to all of the boys and girls that participated.

We had an amazing first team competition this past Saturday. Pushing through our nerves and doubts, we managed to perform a well executed routine and placed 3rd. I'm super proud of our team and we're looking forward to improving and working even harder for the next competition. This was a good first of one of the lasts for our matrics.
