5 CURSES

COMMON TO OUR LIVES TODAY

From the Principal's desk

The word 'curse' is not used much these days. It is generally regarded as an archaic term, from a long-forgotten time, or as something that you would only encounter in Disney fantasy movies. But if we define a curse as "a destructive influence causing harm or misery and that mysteriously enslaves and afflicts one" then I suggest that there are still curses that torment us today. Here are five common curses:

THE "I'M RIGHT AND YOU'RE WRONG" CURSE.

It is a noble pursuit to seek truth and develop convictions based on truth, but this can morph into a curse when it starts to cause polarisation, then loss of compassion for others who think differently to us and finally a raw hatred of them who dare to hold to different beliefs from our own. Somewhere along the line, what started as a noble pursuit, becomes nothing more than self-righteousness and pride.

THE "IT'S SO UNFAIR" CURSE.

We pay more taxes, we get worse service, we work harder, and we get paid less. Life is unfair. But beware that the 'fairness denied' attitude is not an imposter which is in reality the curse of entitlement and rebellion fomenting in our hearts.

THE "NOT ENOUGH" CURSE.

We all know this curse as it pertains to money, but I'd like to suggest that it also pertains to time. "I just don't have enough time..." can just as easily become a curse, a debilitating factor that produces frustration and unproductive haste. Perhaps we must remind ourselves that all of us have been given 1 440 minutes every day, no more or no less. Then perhaps our "not enough" curse will be shown to be pure selfishness.

THE "HARD-HEARTEDNESS" CURSE.

This is the stubborn refusal to forgive those that have harmed us, to harbor resentment and to seek revenge. Like any curse it grows. What starts as a disappointment, develops into anger and persists as bitterness will always cause more harm to the one who carries it than the one against whom it is directed. The root of this curse is a judgmental attitude; a form of idolatry because judgement belongs to God alone.

THE "MALCONTENT" CURSE.

This is 'one who is chronically discontented or dissatisfied'. Not only does a curse grow, but it also generalises. What begins as discontent in a particular area, seeps into other areas and soon the malcontent can only respond in complaints and grumbling, no matter what the circumstance. A sincere and honest introspection might expose a pervasive unthankfulness as the real driver for this curse.

WHAT TO DO:

Be brutally honest in your self-examination. Confront your curse - selfishness, pride and judgementalism would sooner masquerade by much more noble-sounding names. Intentionally oppose the curse. Curses gain power through habit, they are equally defeated by opposing habits.

MR. KEN LANGLEY

Principal

LOMS

in action (MIA)

One of the ministries that falls under the blanket of MIA is our Caring with Meals ministry. The idea behind this ministry is to bless our parents and staff in a time of need. This need may be the loss of a loved one, the birth of a new baby or hospitalisation due to illness or surgery. Meals are delivered to school before closing time and arrangements are made for the meals to be collected or delivered to the family in need.

We do understand and appreciate that many of us are experiencing tough times at the moment, but if we join hands and work together, we can do amazing things.

As the Word teaches us in Luke 6 verse 38, "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."

Should you be interested in joining MIA and blessing our King's School Family, please email Mrs Adelle Halls on adelleh@tkswr.co.za or Whatsapp her on 083 330 0247.

Please Note: In case of absenteeism a doctor's note must be provided for all summative assessments (tests, orals, practical assessments etc) missed.

International Cancer Day

Teacher Stacey Lombaard and her family hosted a drive-by Cupcakes for Hope for survivors and fighters of Cancer on Sunday 6 June, which was International Cancer day. On this day she also celebrated our very own Teacher Angie Grobbelaar who is currently fighting the battle.

They gave out home baked, delicious cupcakes for donations of R10 and R20 and raised over R3000!

We are so proud of this family who served their community so beautifully! Thank you to all those who donated to a worthy cause!
