From the Principal's desk

Tomorrow is Good Friday.

It is the day that marks the crucifixion of Jesus, an event that made it possible for us to be partakers in the Kingdom of God. Why is it called 'Good' Friday when Jesus death on the cross was anything but good? In fact, the Bible says "his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being and his form marred beyond human likeness" in Isaiah 52:14.

It is good because Christ died in place of us, taking the punishment that was due to us so that we could receive the gift of eternal life. This is what Martin Luther called the Great Exchange. "But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed." Isaiah 53:5

Tomorrow, when you remember the passion and death of Christ, it is a somber remembrance, but as Christians through the ages have said, "It's Friday, but Sunday is coming!". There is an air of anticipation, because on Sunday, we will greet one another with "Christ is Risen." "He is risen indeed." Easter Sunday is a joyous celebration because we consider Jesus' resurrection and the eternal significance of it for us who follow Him. "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" 1 Peter 1:3.

May you and your family experience the peace and joy of Christ this Easter weekend. Seek his presence among you and express your gratitude to the Lord for the wonderful gift of resurrection life.

"We understand and acknowledge that the Resurrection has placed a glorious crown upon all of Christ's sufferings"

- A. W. Tozer

Because of the empty tomb, we have peace. Because of His resurrection, we can have peace during even the most troubling of times because we know He is in control of all that happens in the world. - Paul Chappell

During the course of the 1st Term 44 of our High School learners (including the Grade 7s) took part in the 62nd Public Speaking Festival organised by the Speech and Drama College of South Africa. The learners speak as a team (chairperson and 3 speakers) for 15 minutes. We are very proud of our learners and want to thank them for their time, effort and for being so willing to share their God-given talents with others. A big thank you also goes to Mrs Thabang Sehlangu, Mrs Lesego de Carvalho, Ms Angela Van Druuten and Mrs Barbara Knight for all the guidance and support you gave your teams.
